The DIMMER VIEW

Jack Schrade Week Proposed

We hereby proclaim this Be Kind To Jack Schrade Week. State Senator Jack Schrade is being mauled by the media, politicians, lending institutions and would-be political observers.

He shouldn't be.

Senator Schrade has brought distinction to himself and to his constituency during the 16 years he has been in Sacramento.

He is being lambasted by too many fat mouths following the revelation that he was the recipient of a $5,000 campaign contribution from a savings and loan firm. The contribution came a couple of years before the election and he cast a vote favoring a savings and loan issue sometime after the contribution but contributions and votes is the name of the game.

Take a look at Jack.

Sen. Schrade has established an amazing record of first time accomplishments as a member of the State Senate.

In 1967 he became the first senator in Southern California to be elected to the prestigious Senate Rules Committee.

In 1970, the time when the fur hit the fan, he was the first Southern California Senator ever to be elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate. Not just from San Diego, mind you — but from the entire southern part of the state.

As President Pro Tempore, Schrade is automatically chairman of the Senate Rules Committee. Another first. It's the first time a Southern Californian has ever chaired that important committee.

As President Pro Tem of the Senate, he holds one of the most important leadership roles. If the Governor and the Lt. Governor should be unable to fulfill their duties, Schrade would assume the governor's post. He presides over the Senate in the absence of the Lt. Governor. He is responsible for the prompt and businesslike disposition of bills and other business coming before the upper house of the Legislature.

As chairman of the Rules Committee he is responsible for supervising the internal administration of the Senate. This Committee, generally, appoints all other Senate Committees. Thus, the President Pro Tem and the Rules Committee hold significant power over the fate of all legislative proposals.

That's a heap of power Jack has brought to San Diego.

In return for that, those who have long been his admirers, suddenly are taking pot shots at him.

The chemistry of the whole fracas might be entirely political.

Let's hypothesize.

The Democrats are still uptight from the breach wedged by the GOPs when the Republican sweep came to the last general election. The GOPs, now in power, planned a redistricting program that would strengthen the GOP posture. Jess Unruh, one of the nation's smartest political tacticians, will attempt to unseat Reagan. One of the first steps should be to discredit a ranking Republican.

There are all the chemicals for the explosion. Now let's mix 'em.

Let's assume that Jess Unruh offered Schrade Democratic support for his ambition to be the most powerful man in the Senate.

Perhaps the price was the relaxation of voting district boundaries. It's called redistricting.

Then came the leak that Schrade had sold his vote for $5,000. Some say it's a legitimate political contribution negotiation. The main sin is one of time. The contribution should have been made closer to the election. How close? Who knows?

If Unruh negotiated with Schrade and then tipped the press, these objectives were achieved:

It injured the reputation of the state's ranking Republican.

It obstructed the GOP redistricting program.

It created a breach in the GOP political organization.

It brought distrust in its leadership to Republicans.

It frightened into submission those lawmakers who have accepted campaign contributions prior to the election period. It reestablishes Jess Unruh as the master political tactician and brought new respect for his capabilities.

It caught Governor Reagan flat-footed. He first condemned Schrade and three days later denied the condemnation by announcing no interest in Schrade's swap-deal. His vacillation weakened Republican strength generally and the Governor's position specifically.

If Jess Unruh created this situation, he is indeed a master.

Schrade could have reduced the heat if he had only said that he had been bilked out of $70,000 because he had voted for savings and loan issues 14 times before: two in 1963; four each in 1965, 1967 and 1968, and the one associated with the $5,000 contribution in 1969.

Senator Jack Schrade you see, if nothing else, is consistent.

HEW Bill Passes; LG Gets $100,000

Lemon Grove board members got to watch Laugh-In Monday night.

The trustees breezed through an abbreviated agenda in just under an hour, adjourning just before 8:30 p.m.

The board heard Byron Netzley report that the long-awaited passage of the Labor-HEW Appropriation Bill had occurred last week and that President Nixon had affixed his signature Friday.

Similar legislation was vetoed earlier in what the President called a move to halt inflation.

According to Netzley, the bill contains $520 million in impact aid, which is the same as the 1969 level of support.

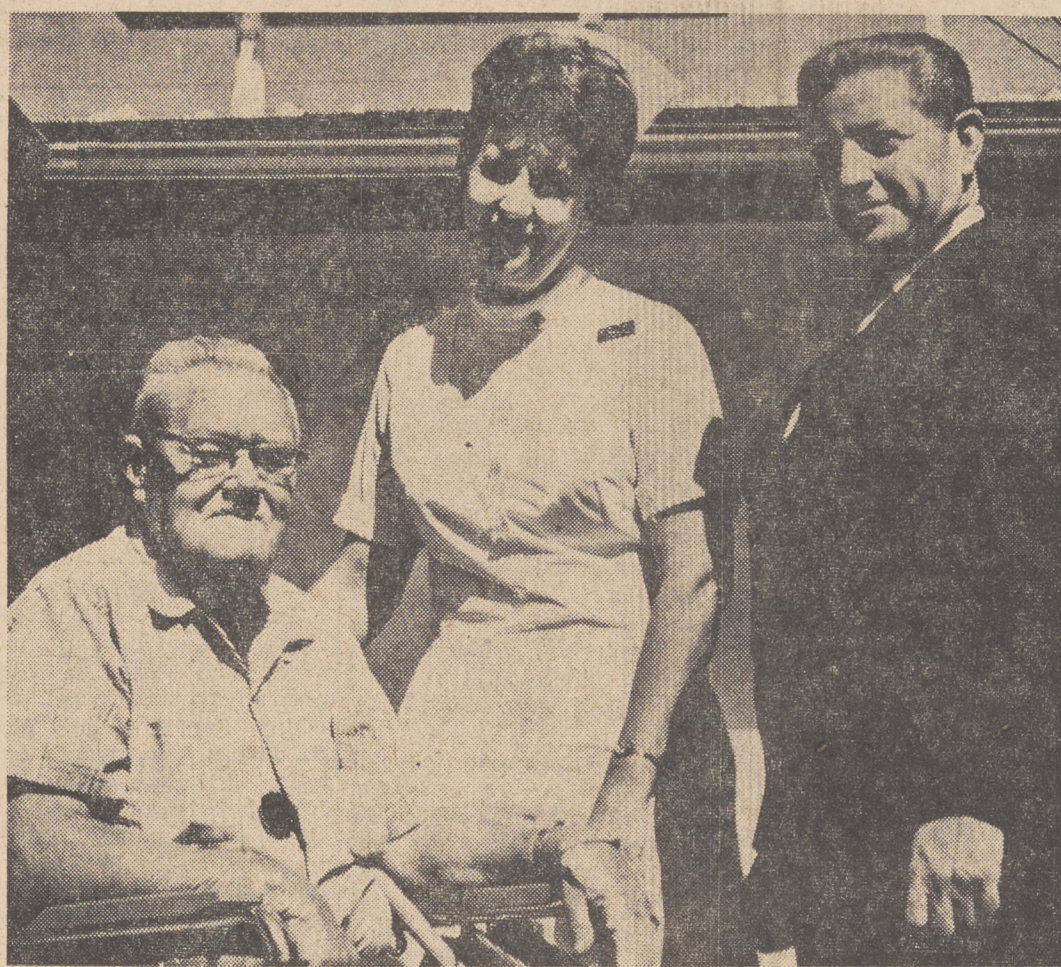

However, the district will receive only 78% of its entitlement, or about $100,000, Netzley estimates.

Rising costs and increased enrollment were responsible for the dilution of what money was needed a year ago.

The bill also contains an appropriation for the NDEA Title V-A funds, enough to finance an application for counseling service at the two junior high schools.

The board has already hired a counselor to fill that position.

The board also moved to cancel a scheduled April 3 board meeting, as the date conflicts with attendance at the National School Boards Assn. Conference in San Francisco, slated April 11 to 14.

ANNIVERSARY — It was the 10th anniversary of the San Diego Convalescent Hospital in Lemon Grove, and the 10th year of service for Mrs. Catherine Menger, hospital administrator. Marking the twin anniversaries, hospital owner Wallace Hunt, right presents Nurse Menger with a 10 year tag which she is wearing on her shoulder. Seated, is a well-known area resident, Eliot Beddoe, who is a patient there. Nurse Menger credits the hospital staff with making the hospital so popular.

Property Taxes Soon Due Again

Property tax time is almost here again.

Penalty date for the second section of the bill is due April 10.

The County Tax Collector suggested today that residents should gather together property tax papers well in advance and look them over. Questions that arise will have time for answers during March he said.

New owners are cautioned to ascertain whether the second installment taxes are paid. Failure to receive a bill does not excuse the penalties for late payment, he warned.

SV Soldier Killed in War

PFC James Anella, of Spring Valley, was killed in action in Vietnam Friday, the Defense Department announced.

Anella, 20, a 1967 graduate of Mount Miguel High School, was drafted into the Army last June.

He attended Grossmont College for a year and a half before his call into the service.

Anella is survived by his wife, Nedra; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anella of La Mesa; a brother, Ben Jr. of Los Angeles; and a sister, Judy Anella, of La Mesa.

Funeral arrangements at Conrad Mortuary in Lemon Grove are pending.

New, Tighter Controls May See Skyrocket Of Lot Split Costs

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — The County's free and easy approach to lot splits which create four or less parcels appears to be on the way out.

Instead of paying a nominal fee for a lot split, the owner will be faced with an upped county fee, full engineering fees, cost of improvements and dedications of land. Costs could easily exceed $2,000.

Planning Director Dan Cherrier urged it. The Planning Commission is studying it.

If approved, tentative subdivision maps would be required on all splits except minor adjustments. It would eliminate some of the nearly unsolvable problems which now face the commission.

A tentative map must be prepared by professionals at a cost of $500 or more. If approved, a final map must be filed and recorded.

Division for dedication of land for street, highway or utility easement requires a final tentative subdivision map if the portion is sold.

A current practice is for a 4-lot land owner to reserve a 20-foot strip easement but proposed is 52 feet.

Justification is that:

Land splits intensify land use;

Beneficiary, not general public, should pay for public improvements;

Buyer is protected by getting a proper piece of ground for building.

Not listed, but equally beneficial, is that groups of owners of small but dividable parcels might start getting together to plan engineered subdivisions for the benefit of all.

Grove Assn. Slates Meet

The Lemon Grove Association, formed by a group of interested citizens for the purpose of initiating humanizing projects, will have a general membership meeting on Wednesday, at the Golden Avenue School cafeteria, at 7:30 p.m.

The topic "Lemon Grove 1975" will be discussed by a panel composed of representatives from education, business, church, youth law enforcement and local government.

The meeting is open to all interested members of the community and memberships are being accepted. From Lemon Grove residents at $1 per person or $2 per family.

Mrs. Gigliotti Improves

An expression of thanks was voiced this week by Dr. Frank Gigliotti, of 3785 Gigliotti dr., Lemon Grove, for the cards, flowers, concern and prayers regarding the illness of his wife Mabelle.

Mrs. Gigliotti was hospitalized 40 days ago following a stroke. A few days ago her condition improved and she regained consciousness, he said. If progress continue, she will be home in another month, he said.

She is at University hospital.

S.V. Auto Storage Yard OK'd for Kenwood Drive

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors on Monday approved the extension of an automobile storage yard in Spring Valley over the objection of some 20 residents on Kenwood drive.

In the three to two vote, Harry Scheidle and Henry A. Boney voted to turn down the application of James R. McCormack for a rezone from R-3 to C-2 so that he could extend his present storage yard to the north.

Real estate man Chet Smith and Richard Allen led the opposition and were joined at the meeting by Edward Villalobos and Lydia S. Thomas.

However, McCormack's attorney Graham Flemming was able to convince the commission that the area was already one of such varied and incompatible land uses that an additional acre of stored, wrecked cars would do little harm.

The first request had been for the rezone up to Kenwood drive, but with the approval of the applicant, the area was held to the southern portion of the property.

The location is about 200 feet east of Bancroft drive with C-2 zoning to the Bancroft side and M-1 zoning to the south. M-1 is the county least restrictive industrial zone and C-2 is the least restrictive commercial zone.

Both allow outdoor storage of cars, so long as they are not worked on or dismantled, as a matter of right.

Smith said he and Allen had wanted to build apartments in the R-3 zone on land they own, but that financing was not attainable because of the location.

Flemming said he doubted his client's operation had anything more to do with the turn down than other things in the neighborhood.

The planning commission had recommended that the zone change be denied, but the department had recommended that it be granted.

Jacquelyn Murphy Succumbs Tuesday

Jacquelyn Joyce Murphy 28, died Tuesday following a long bout with cancer.

Mrs. Murphy, of 1043 South Sunshine in El Cajon, was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Foss of Lemon Grove. Her mother was the secretary for the Chamber of Commerce here.

Rosary is scheduled tomorrow evening at 7 p.m. at Santa Sophia Catholic church in Spring Valley. Requiem mass is Saturday at 11 a.m., to be followed by private burial services.

A native of Minnesota, Mrs. Murphy had lived in this area 22 years. She was a Mount Miguel High graduate and was a member of the San Diego County Escrow Assn.

She is survived by her husband, Carroll Murphy, and her parents.

The family requests donations to the American Cancer Society in lieu of flowers.

Traffic Lights OK'd at Canton-Skyline Corner

SAN DIEGO (CNA) — County supervisors on Monday approved the installation of traffic signal lights at the Lemon Grove intersection of Skyline and Canton without taking away curbside parking.

Several persons appeared to protest alternate suggestions of the traffic advisory committee for the installation of left turn storage pockets.

One was that parking be prohibited and the other was that Skyline be widened five feet on both sides.

Supervisor Harry Scheidle said the compromise might handle the traffic and cut accidents, but it would not be known until a year or two of experience.

County Engineer Howard Taylor said Skyline has a right of way of 100 feet, but that houses were built on the property line because the area was zoned commercially years ago.

He said neither solution would have been pleasant for the residents.

Parking would have been prohibited for 300 feet on each side of the intersection for the storage lane and transition lanes.

Owner Appeals Main-North Lot Variance Reject

A request for a setback variance at North and Main streets in Lemon Grove will be heard March 23 by the County Board of Supervisors.

The hearing is at the request of Robert Fergen to whom the request for variance was previously denied by the Planning Commission.

Fergen asks a front yard centerline setback reduction on Main st. from 75 to 30 feet and a centerline reduction from 75 to 45 feet on North ave., and a rear yard setback reduction from 15 to 5 feet.

The hearing is set for 2 p.m.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department reports one rescue call and one fire call for the week of March 29.

On March 2 at 12:58 p.m. rescuers went to the Bowlero on Broadway and administered first aid to George Snow, 57, who lives at 8863 Echo dr., La Mesa. Snow had suffered a fainting spell.

On March 2, also, firement went to 3828 Shirlene dr., at 11:42 a.m. Fire had broken out in the kitchen of Mrs. R. Strickler, due possibly to a cigarette in a trash container. Fire was contained to the kitchen, the estimated damage being $40.

ADMIRAL PUTNAM

Grove Man Wins Rank of Admiral

Dwight Putnam, a supervising probation officer at San Diego County's Juvenile Hall, has been promoted to the rank of rear admiral in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

He becomes the first and youngest admiral in the naval reserve in the San Diego area.

Admiral Putnam, 50, who lives at 3055 Crane st. in Lemon Grove, was notified of the promotion earlier this month.

President Nixon signed the order and sent it to the U. S. Senate Thursday. Congressional approval is routine.

Putnam became an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve in 1937. He was assigned to a "stack" destroyer on which he served during the Battle of Pearl Harbor and the Battle of Midway. He was then assigned to a submarine school in Connecticut.

During the remainder of WWII he was on submarine patrol in the China Sea and the South Pacific. He was promoted to lieutenant (jg) in 1942; lieutenant in 1943; Lt. commander in 1945; commander in 1951, and captain in 1959. He was released from active duty in 1945.

He was recalled in 1951 for Korean duty.

He remained active in the reserve program during his active service periods. He has served as commanding officer of most of the local naval reserve units. In 1960 he was appointed the first naval reserve group commander in the San Diego area.

He is holder of the Silver Star, Submarine Combat insignia with 3 stars, Japanese Occupation and various theatre ribbons.

His principal assignments with naval reserve in recent years has been serving on promotion boards in Washington, D.C.

Admiral Putnam is married and has three daughters and two grandchildren.

'Substance' is Topic

The Lesson-Sermon read in all Christian Science churches this Sunday is on "Substance," which Mary Baker Eddy defines in Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures as follows: "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay" (p. 468).

One of the Bible verses in the Lesson-Sermon is from Matthew: "No man can serve two masters; for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon."

The public is welcome to attend services at 11 a.m. at First Church of Christ Scientist, Lemon Grove, 7741 Pacific ave.

LETTERS

Reader Asks For Pollution Reminders

Dear Editor:

Like many people I am increasingly worried about the pollution problem and what to do about it. One thing I am doing is writing to you to suggest that you publish a regular pollution report for both air and water giving chemical quantities and probable source (industry, autos, etc.)

I have also written to the various radio and television stations suggesting that they give this information along with their hourly weather report.

It is my opinion that we should continually be made aware that the air we breathe and the water we drink, bathe and swim in, is dirty and that our own car exhaust, litter and fecundity are a serious part of the problem. If we are never allowed to forget that we personally are shortening our own lives, then we might begin to do something about it and maybe even to act protectively toward the unspoiled area.

If there are others, like myself, who feel that this continual detailed pollution reminder, would be of value, I urge them to write to the radio and tv stations in the San Diego area.

Very truly yours,
Mrs. Terry M. Flanagan
San Diego

We agree that education is one means of combating pollution problems. To this end, we publish stories, when available, of anti-pollution projects or of lectures, talks, classes, etc. on the subject.

We know of no regular available information from which to gain "pollution reports."

We'll continue to publish reminders regularly about the state of the problem, fast becoming the most serious to face mankind.

We urge others to write, to their congressmen as well as us and other newspapers, about the problem.

News Editor

Reader Can't Reach Scheidle

Dear Editor:

Does Lemon Grove have a District Supervisor? If so, how does he communicate with the people in his District?

During the past three weeks my husband and I have placed five telephone calls to Mr. Harry Scheidle's office, and have not received a reply from him. (Feb. 19 to March 6). Mr. Scheidle's secretary said he was out of town, in a meeting and was ill. Mr. Scheidle's assistant who was to return the call never did. We desperately need fly and stench abatement help in our neighborhood and wanted his help.

Is Mr. Scheidle a supervisor in name only? We need a supervisor in this district but only if he can communicate with people in his district. With social changes in Lemon Grove we need a supervisor who can keep up with its needs. We need health standards enforced and zoning changes for the betterment of all people in the district — not for just a select few. It's one thing when the health department and planning department pass the buck but why should the supervisor do it too?

It isn't as though we do not supply Mr. Scheidle with the most modern telephone equipment. Taxpayers' money can buy! It would seem that he would use the phone to communicate even if he doesn't want to walk through the flies and smell the stench.

We remember Mr. Scheidle's billboard campaign promises "The man who gets things done." The only thing he has actively done in Lemon Grove is to avoid contact with his constituents.

We have had eight years of complaints to the S.D. County Health Department and the County Planning Department and to the County supervisor's office — the latter who governs the others.

We are encouraging other citizens to voice complaints. Call his office at 239-7711, ext. 688 and try to tell him your problems. You'll be shocked that he won't hear a word you say.

Respectfully,
Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Miller

Bull and Bear Opens Downtown

San Diego continues to gain in fine eating places.

The newest is the Bull and Bear at 1154 Fifth ave. in mid-town San Diego.

It opened last week under the direction of the Alessio Corp. which also operates Mr. A's.

Bull and Bear is reminiscent of better-class back-east rathskellers where good food, good drink and good service are the trademarks. Indeed, Bull & Bear has a rathskeller. However, it is only a stair-step or two lower than the bar and grill.

The restaurant gives the feeling of opulence. Artifacts are tastefully displayed around the walls. The bar, for example, is an ancient one from the Mother Lode country. An inlaid cabinet, believe it or not, came from the Haight-Ashbury section of San Francisco.

Lunches are $1.50 to $4.25 and dinners range from $4 to $7.

The restaurant opens daily at 11 except Sunday. On Saturday it opens at 5. MG

NEW TV DIET

Learn the secret of TV's little will-power, no pill, no exercise reducing formula. This marvelous diet is literally taking the country by storm as the pounds simply slip off while you eat your fill of the delicious foods on the list. It is the one diet that really works for most overweight people.

A well known TV personality, who appears weekly, had tried numerous diets with no success. He lost 60 pounds in a little over 60 days on this fantastic new diet. A noted novelist lost 9 pounds in 5 days. She says, "I don't have the time to go to health farms and relax that way to take off weight. That's why this particularly fast-acting diet is the right one for me."

There is no question that most overweights need the shock treatment of having their eating clearly defined by a specific diet plan which takes off pounds speedily and dramatically. If you are one of the normal 95%, this diet will definitely take off that excess poundage in a hurry no matter how many times you might have failed in the past. It can work wonders for you for the rest of your healthier and more beautiful life.

This is not a citrus fruit diet. If you want to lose weight fast, but on a scientifically sound basis, act now as you may never have this same opportunity again.

Miguel Seeks Cash For Foreign Students

The month of March will be a hectic one for the Mount Miguel International Club, as they attempt to raise money to bring at least two foreign exchange students to Mount Miguel in the coming year.

The Club's biggest fundraising event of the year, the Bond Drive, will be held March 16-20. Members of International Club hope to raise at least $800 through the sales of bonds, which sell for 50c apiece.

The Bond Drive will not be limited to an on-campus activity this year, but the Club members will sell the bonds, featuring the pictures of Mount Miguel's two foreign exchange students, Soren Mikkelson of Denmark, and Lars Jonsson of Sweden, throughout the community, going door-to-door and by contacting businesses.

When asked about the sales of bonds, Eileen Kitchen, secretary of International Club, commented, "A.F.S., through the exchange student program, promotes world friendship."

"We are hoping that if you are approached to purchase a bond, you will further our worthy cause and aid us in reaching our goals."

To help promote the Mount Miguel Bond Drive, International Club will sponsor an A.F.S. Assembly, March 17. At this time 15 foreign exchange students, who are attending schools in the Grossmont District, will entertain and talk to Miguel students.

The night before the assembly all the exchange students will be invited to spend the night with a Mount Miguel student and family, and following the assembly, the exchange students will visit many of the classrooms, and speak about their countries.

International Club will also have a booth set up at the Mount Miguel Fiesta, March 20. The money received from the sales of confetti-filled eggs will also aid their cause. And the last money-making project sponsored by the Club will be the International Club Dance, April 3.

At least $700 must be raised through all the events. International Club already has enough money to sponsor one student, but their goal is to sponsor two.

All the money goes directly to A.F.S., but it is used not only for the students' transportation to the United States, but International Club also pays for the exchange students' year books, class rings, letterman's jackets, Senior dues, ABS Cards, and any other school expenses that come up during the year.

The purpose of the foreign exchange student is best expressed in the A.F.S. theme: "Walk together, talk together, all ye peoples of the Earth."

Sandwiched amidst the trials will be the Troop's monthly campout which will be held Mar. 20-22 at Seely Lake in the Imperial Valley.

Food Servers Meet a Week

An estimated 3,000 women who produce the millions of meals served daily in California schools will gather in San Francisco during Easter Week for the seventeenth annual conference of the California School Food Service Association.

Locally, these delegates will attend:

Mrs. R. C. Pfister, supervisor, Lemon Grove district; and Mrs. Roy Rasmussen, manager, Monterey Heights School.

This will be a convention with a highly topical theme—how "Knowledge—The Key to Progress" can unlock the door to "The Possible Dream," a pledge of last year's conference that it is "the birthright of every child to have enough to eat."

Association member are school Food Service supervisors, managers and others, with nearly 5,000 members statewide. CSFCA is a division of the American School Food Service Association.

Bobbysoxers will be modeling the fashions presented by Anita's, Grossmont Shopping Center. Mrs. Eagle promises lots of fun and a few surprises.

ORPHANS DELIGHT — Gary Carver sits astride Redarle, a 14-year old burro, as his partner in the Marleedon Candle Shop, Larry Green, stands by. The youthful businessmen donated the burro to an orphanage in Tijuana. Redarle was originally given to Gary and Larry by their secretary, Miss Sam Baker, but the proximity of Lena's Mexican Restaurant and Jane's Country Kitchen decided the young men against keeping her. No merchant in the area has complained. In fact, according to Gary, Redarle has become the favorite of the whole neighborhood. Last week Redarle was picked up by trailer and taken to Mexico. Kiwanians Push 'Pillars' Tickets

SAN DIEGO — The ticket sales campaign for the 1970 Pillars of American Freedom program was announced Tuesday at the noon meeting of the sponsoring San Diego Downtown Kiwanis in the U.S. Grant Hotel.

Kiwanians hope to sell more than 6,000 tickets to this year's sessions, April 7, 14 and 21 in the Community Concourse.

The 1970 programs will deal with a single "pillar" — knowledge. The program formats will accent youth — San Diego County student leaders — in open forum discussions with educators from area high schools, community colleges, colleges and universities.

Student tickets, at 50 cents each, will be sold through staffs of county educational institutions.

A $15 ticket book, containing one $6 admission to each of the three sessions, will be sold by Kiwanians.

Globe Giant Hobart Has Grove Office

A close look at the San Altos-Bradshaw sign on Massachusetts in Lemon Grove reveals a Hobart Mfg. Co. on the board. Who's that?

Hobart is the world's largest manufacturer of food machines and the Massachusetts location is the San Diego and Imperial County outlet for the concern.

Located at 1809 Massachusetts, the Lemon Grove office is staffed with 13 employees, including manager Robert McDermott, two salesmen, office personnel, and servicemen.

The company makes food processing machines such as slicers, grinders and scales for commercial outlets. They also stock a line of domestic Kitchen-aid products, such as dishwashers, mixers and disposers.

Hobart is the brand name of commercial machines and just starting to invade the domestic line.

The Lemon Grove office, which has been open four years, last year handled half a million dollars in sales, and 10% of that was domestic sales.

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Would you please translate the phrases "chew the fat," "come in handy," "dog tired," and "do over" into Spanish? Is it possible to translate these on a word-for-word basis and produce the same meaning?

Strangely enough these would not have the same meaning in Spanish even though used in the same phrases. "Chew the fat" is an expression which means "to gossip." Thus one might use the word "chismear" (to gossip) to confer the idea of "chewing the fat."

"Dog tired" is equivalent to "muerto de cansancio." In the phrase "He is dog tired," the translation would be "El esta muerto de cansancio."

Anything that "comes in handy," is considered by the Spanish-speaking world as something that is always useful. Thus the phrase "siempre util" could be used to imply that which "comes in handy."

"Do over" means to "do again" and the Spanish for this is "hacer de nuevo." Used in the phrases "Do it over" the translation would be "Hagalo de nuevo." In this case "hagalo" is the command form of "hacer" with the pronoun "lo" (it) attached. Several variations of the phrases you suggested will appear in the practice phrases below. An automatic recording will say each word and phrase with a pause after each. You are invited to doal 276-2762 and hear the recording. You may also wish to say the words and phrases in the pause between each.

IMPORTANT PHRASES: Say "Esta util?" (eh-STAH OO-teel) for "Is it handy?" Say "Siempre esta util." (see-EHM-preh eh-STAH OO-teel) for "It is always handy."

USEFUL PHRASES: Say "Le gusta chismear?" (leh GOOS-tah chees-meh-AHR) for "Do you like to gossip?" (chew the fat) Say "No me gusta chismear." (noh meh GOOS-tah chees-meh-AHR) for "I do not like to gossip." (chew the fat)

OTHER PHRASES: Say "Puede hacerlo de nuevo?" (poo-EH-deh ah-SEHR-loh deh noo-EH-voh) for "Can you do it again?" Say "Yo lo hare de nuevo." (yoh loh ah-REH deh noo-EH-voh) for "I will do it again."

Year of the Pitcher For S.D. Gomezmen

YUMA — The difference here this year is in the competition.

The Padres in the spring of 1970 have a fight on their hands — with themselves.

Only two positions have been awarded for the season's opening game against Atlanta on April 7. All other assignments are uncommitted.

"Last year, we didn't have enough ball players who could battle each other for starting jobs and the players knew it," said manager Preston Gomez.

"This year, there's competition for nearly every position. Players are fighting each other for work and this, probably more than anything else, is going to make us a better club once the season starts."

Gomez didn't hesitate in naming his opening night first baseman and right fielder.

"Nate Colbert will be at first and Ollie Brown will be in right," Gomez firmly announced. "But all other jobs are wide open."

The competition on the Padres probably is the most intense among the pitchers and pitching coach Roger Craig, in his first oration to the staff, did not hesitate to stir the emotions of his audience.

"This training camp is unlike any other in baseball," Craig told the two-dozen hurlers. "There are no super stars on this pitching staff. There are 10 jobs open and every one qualifies."

Craig was asked what effect on the staff he anticipated because of the competition.

"A ball player always is better off if he is required to compete," Craig said. "Competition makes him work harder. I believe it'll make some of our boys better pitchers."

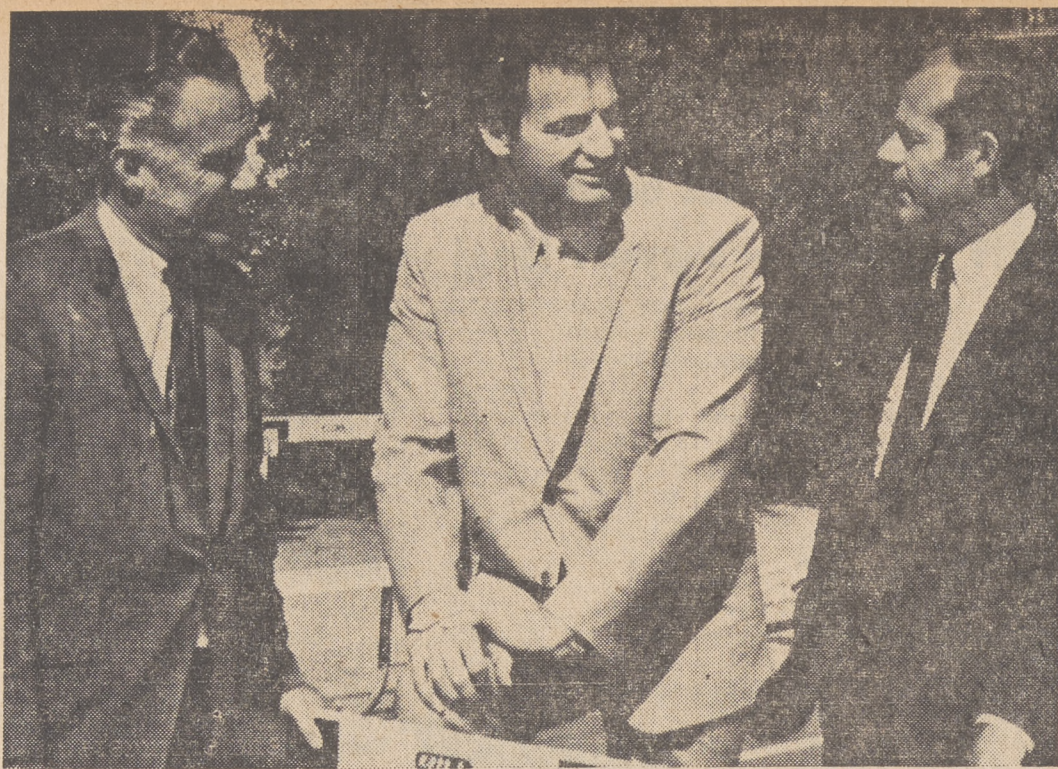

It is one of baseball's beautiful propositions that often the unknown blossom in spring training. And Gomez anticipates that will happen here.

N.Y. Knicks Here In Title Drive

The San Diego Rockets meet the Eastern Division's "best" Saturday night when they take on the New York Knickerbockers in an 8 p.m. contest at San Diego Sports Arena.

The Knicks, who have led the NBA's East since the opening day of the season, could well have the division title in their pocket by Saturday.

If they do win the title, it will be the first for a New York team since 1953-54.

The Rockets have managed only one victory in five outings with the New Yorkers this season and their all time record stands at 5-13. San Diego's only win this year came on Jan. 10 at the Sports Arena when they defeated the Knicks 123-115. In that contest Elvin Hayes led the Rockets with 31 points and 15 rebounds. Stu Lantz also contributed 28 points to the victory.

Douglas Fairbanks has been admitted to the Fashion Hall of Fame as a representative of the "perpetual symbols of excellence in dress."

Slow Track, Eagles Can't Stop Helix

Rain washed out most of the Grossmont League's opening track and field schedule, but a damp track couldn't slow down Helix, odds-on favorite for the league title.

Not a damp track nor Granite Hills, rated as a possible contender, could brake the Highlanders, a 100-36 winner.

Art Evins and John Landis were double winners for Helix, while Ed Mendoza, Rick Schultz, Dick Comber and Bob Bishop turned in good performances.

Evins captured the hurdles in :13.6 and :20.7 on the slow track. Landis took the sprints in :10.2 and :23.5, upsetting Eagle Daryl Guthridge in the short dash.

Mendoza, in mid-season shape, racked up a 4:26.5 mile, one of the fastest in the county so far. The Helix junior's two-mile time of 9:26.4, ran last week, is second best in the county.

Schultz cleared a personal best of 13-6 in winning the vault and took over the county lead in the that event. A number of other competitors have cleared 13-feet.

Comber got off the best discus throw this season, 148-5, but should relinquish the lead there when Mt. Miguel's Billy Joe Winchester first appears.

Bishop, one of the fastest half-milers in the county, stepped down to the 440 and clocked a good :51.4.

The Highlanders also took wins in the 880, two-mile, 440 relay, long jump and shot put.

Helix performers lead the county in the vault, shot and discus are tied in the high hurdles and are runner-up in the 880, and two mile.

CHUCKIN' SPORTS

Jack Frost Pioneers No Hook-No Slice Aid

By Chuck Curtis

There is an old saw that says, "Necessity is the mother of invention."

On the staff at the Lemon Grove Review and Spring Valley Bulletin are a pair of ardent golfers, Jack Frost and Hew Austin. Most sunny weekends they can be found on one of the fine golf courses in the area, either teamed in a foursome or battling one another.

Frankly I never really get the straight of who wins or who is the bigger liar of the pair, but who cares as long as it's all in the spirit of good clean fun.

Not long ago something happened that changed things briefly. Frosty is a big man, far more physical than Hew. He is capable of driving a golf ball the proverbial "country mile."

Moving a new piece of machinery into the back printing shop Frosty was injured. He nearly lost the tip of the middle finger on his right hand. The doctors took about 14 stitches to put the finger back together.

Frosty had to miss a week of playing golf and it nearly broke his heart. The following weekend he determined he was going to get in his game. Frosty bought a plastic protector for his injured finger and went out on the course.

The following Monday both Hew and Frosty agreed. As Frosty put it, "I had one of the best days of my life. With this gadget on my finger and the pull of the wound, it was impossible for me to roll my wrist without discomfort. It also meant I couldn't overplay my strong hand. The result was that I was hitting them straight down the fairway all afternoon. Probably not as far as I usually hit the ball, but no hooks or slices. It was great."

For all you duffers, let me set the record straight. I am not advocating that you slice the tip off a finger.

What I am suggesting is that someone come up with a commercially marketed device that would force the amateur golfer to hit the ball straight. All it would have to do would be to give some discomfort whenever a golfer overplayed his strong hand or rolled his wrists.

There should be a million dollar market for such a device.

This past weekend I watched the televised basketball game between the New York Knickerbockers and the Philadelphia 76ers.

It was another game dominated by the officiating of Richie Powers and Darryl Garretson.

While watching the game it became apparent to me that the officials are easily the most dominant factors in any game.

I AM NOT IMPLYING THAT POWERS AND GARRETSON DID ANYTHING THAT VIOLATED THE RULES.

The problem is not really their fault. It is the loose and permissive rules structure.

Entirely too much is left to the judgment of the men in the striped shirts. Two men can push and shove each other all over the court and not be called for fouling. Moments later a whistle can blow and one or another of the men be charged with holding or shoving off or throwing an elbow.

If these are infractions at any time then they should be infractions whenever they occur.

It is too easy for an official to see these infractions on key players and miss them on other members of the two teams playing. This is natural since it is the key players who handle the ball most and are in the officials' line of vision most.

This was the case Saturday when the Knicks lost the services of a couple of their key men, including Willis Reed. As far as could be seen on the TV Reed did no more fouling than many of the 76ers and yet he was charged with the most miscues.

Saturday we again saw the intentional foul as Philadelphia used it to protect their lead in the final period of play. There is no way anyone will ever convince me that the intentional foul rule is a good rule.

When two teams are battling for a win it just doesn't seem fair to the team that is trying to catch up, or to the fans watching, to have an intentional foul limit the team to a one point effort.

I guess I'm just old fashioned, but I much preferred the brute strength. I will never forget watching such basketball old style of basketball where finesse was more important than greats as Nat Holman, Clair Bee, George Mikan, Bob Pettit and Easy Ed McCauley.

A continuing report on undergrounding electric lines in the San Diego area.

The role of state government in the undergrounding of electric lines.

The California Public Utilities Commission looks out for your interests as a utility customer, regulating more than 1,500 investor-owned utilities and transportation companies in the state.

Comprised of five commissioners, who supervise a staff of over 900 people throughout the state, the PUC is authorized by state law to see that you get adequate service at fair and reasonable rates. It is also the ruling body for undergrounding procedures in the state.

In 1967, the PUC approved new rules for placing overhead electric lines underground. Every year since then we have budgeted funds for undergrounding electric lines. The proposed budget for conversion is submitted to the PUC for approval. Each City and County is informed of the amount included for its area.

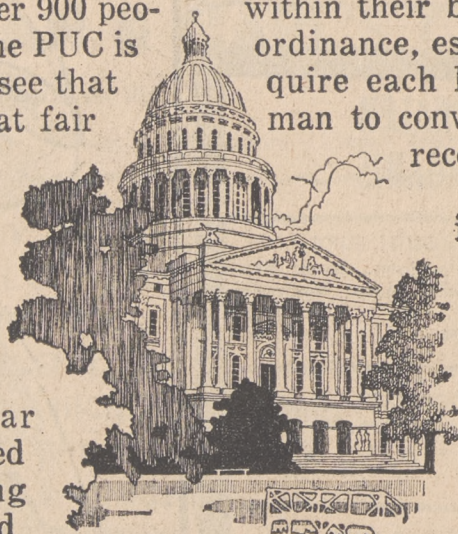

Under the PUC regulations, these budgeted funds can only be applied to underground conversions "in the public interest." This type of conversion is con-finer either to places where there is an excessive congestion of overhead facilities, or to very heavily traveled streets, or to unusually scenic areas.

Local governments determine the priority of "public interest" projects within their boundaries. They also, by ordinance, establish the area and require each homeowner or businessman to convert his own facilities to receive underground service.

If an area does not qualify for a "public interest" conversion, the PUC has ruled that the utility may work directly with groups of property owners in a community or neighborhood. In such cases, the property owners pay a substantial part of the cost of the undergrounding project.

Since 1967 we have budgeted nearly $5 million for conversion projects. Under authority of the PUC, we expect to continue converting overhead lines to underground as fast as availability of men, materials and money will permit.

Boney Backs 'Hard Core' Job Search

Henry Boney, chairman of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors, recommended today that the County take the lead in finding jobs for the hard-core unemployed in the San Diego area.

Boney said the county — with more than 8,000 employees — is one of the largest employers in San Diego and should set an example for the 43 cities and hundreds of private businesses in the community.

Boney, who attended the third annual conference of the National Alliance of Businessmen in Washington Saturday, said delegates were urged to set up programs based on a business-government partnership.

Boney was one of 25 County leaders in the nation invited to the meeting by President Nixon.

The NAB was formed in 1968 at the direction of the White House and was charged with "preparing rejected men and women for productive employment . . . in private industry." The Alliance is especially concerned with finding summer and permanent jobs for the nation's hard-core unemployed. Vice President Spiro T. Agnew stressed the need for total community cooperation in the job-search effort and warned that anti-poverty programs confined strictly to the inner-city areas may be a "subtle form of racism." He warned that solution cannot be found without the direct access to job and housing opportunities in suburbs.

Boney said he agrees with the Agnew statement.

Intra-County Transit Asked By Allen Hitch

Warner Hot Springs — San Diego's Deputy Mayor Allen Hitch urged that serious consideration be given to the need for rapid inter-city surface transit in San Diego County.

Speaking during the Friday session of the countywide conference of Family of Government (FOG), Hitch said, "The cities of this county should be linked together by a rapid transit service. While we are busily luring visitors from the East, we are neglecting our primary market. This county's primary market is this county," he said.

Hitch asked that a study group be appointed from among the various city officials in attendance on a countywide basis.

Present at the FOG Conference were representatives of city government and Lemon Grove and Spring Valley area.

The $6.8 million development boasts two restaurants. One, the Grandee Room is restricted to service for 24 only. Gourmet room of six to 14 courses are served.

Area Produce To Be Shown In S.D. Museum

Produce grown in the Lemon Grove-Spring Valley area forms a major part of a unique marketplace display included in an all-new Foods of the World show now open at Balboa Park's Museum of Man.

In addition to showing the availability of locally-grown vegetables, the market also includes a wide assortment of international canned goods as well as a broad range of condiments.

Described as the most comprehensive food display ever initiated by a cultural institution, the exhibits range from "live" demonstrations of the art of tortilla making to the decorating of wedding cakes.

Museum managing director Clark C. Evehnam said the displays, which will remain until September, are intended to illustrate the intertwining of food with man's folklore and culture, his religion and his survival.

The mood of the show is set by the Cafe de l'Our Qui Rit (the Cafe of the Laughing Bear), a false-front French restaurant which provides space for the sample tasting of international cheeses, sausages and pastries.

Nearby is a "bread of the world" wall display featuring sweet and table varieties and an accompanying ancient staff of life exhibit explaining the uses of wheat, oats, corn, barley, rice, buckwheat and rye.

It is estimated the U. S. has 40-million cats of which 22-million have homes.

The announcement was made Saturday at a party which Sheriff's Captain Duffy gave for his supporters at Town and Country Convention Center.

Dilday, long active in civic affairs, cites Capt. Duffy's extensive law enforcement experience as his reason for supporting the Sheriff's Department veteran.

Duffy has been with the department 17 years, serving in many capacities throughout the county.

"I am impressed with Duffy's administrative qualities and his rapport with those in the Sheriff's Department," Dilday said.

"Duffy is vitally concerned with the problems of today's youth," Dilday noted, citing one of the major campaign issues.

Dilday is also active in Rotary, the San Diego Chamber of Commerce, YMCA Board of Directors, Childrens Hospital Board of Directors, Navy League and other civic and cultural organizations.

Mike Schaefer Enters Race For DA's Post

San Diego Councilman Mike Schaefer Wednesday announced his candidacy to succeed retiring San Diego County District Attorney James Don Keller.

Schaefer, 32, an attorney and partner in a San Diego law firm, served as Deputy City Attorney and Assistant City Prosecutor of San Diego prior to his 1965 election to the local city council.

A native of San Diego County, Schaefer has been active in numerous professional, governmental and civic groups, including legislative committees of the County Bar Association and state and national public safety committees evaluating police and prosecution needs.

Schaefer is Vice-Chairman of the City-County Camp Commission, represents San Diego on the county Civil Defense & Disaster Organization, and has served as an advisor to Junior Achievement and other youth groups.

Councilman Schaefer has attended several Governor's conferences on traffic enforcement and has assisted state and federal authorities in criminal investigations. A graduate of the University of California and Georgetown Law Center, Washington, D.C., Schaefer served as a financial analyst for the federal Securities & Exchange Commission and as a Deputy Clerk for the U. S. District Court while completing his legal education.

Schaefer will urge a non-nonsense approach to the war on crime in San Diego County, and increased professionalism in law enforcement agencies working with the District Attorney's office. "I feel that the District Attorney must be a lawyer with both prosecution and defense courtroom experience, with substantial administrative experience, and with a good feeling of the public pulse," he said.

Big Budgets

As a prosecutor for the people of San Diego, and as a defense attorney, Schaefer has appeared extensively in local courts. During his five years as a Councilman, he has worked with a budget exceeding 100 million annually, has promoted efficiency and economy in government, and has helped in the development of a police department of over 1,000 uniformed and civil service personnel.

As a member of the County Board of Public Health, Councilman Schaefer has been involved with the protection of our environment and public sanitation. He recently urged formation of city and county environmental standards boards to better monitor pollution. Schaefer strongly feels that the District Attorney should serve as the People's lawyer in prosecution of those who illegally contaminated our atmosphere and waters, in addition to the general prosecution of traffic, welfare fraud and felony matters handled by the office.

As an advocate for the People, Schaefer would urge reconsideration of some court decisions that have made law-enforcement difficult.

Schaefer considers himself as the "people's candidate", as contrasted with two of his opponents who have been identified with two powerful special interest groups within San Diego County. As District Attorney, he will be committed to serve only the average man who works hard, educates his kids, and wants to live in a peaceful and clean neighborhood and community — and who wants all who toil with the law to be fully and fairly prosecuted with neither fear nor favor.

Model Operation

Schaefer wants to develop San Diego County as a legal center and model of effective prosecution, and will sponsor an annual conference where top legal authorities will review current legal trends with District Attorney staffs from all over the United States who wish to participate in current analysis of criminal legislation and decisions.

He will urge adequate funding of police and sheriff needs by local county and city governments so that officers and deputies who serve as witnesses for the People will have available the most modern and complete equipment and facilities to combat the forces of evil that trouble our lives.

Appalled at recent news of a 12-year old heroin addict who had access to narcotics for a year, Schaefer has vowed to work closely with federal and state authorities in securing additional investigators and judges so that prosecution of suspected drug suppliers and peddlers can be handled swiftly in our local area.

BoA Cuts FHA Rates

SAN FRANCISCO — Bank of America Monday announced an immediate cut in the discount on 8 1/2 per cent FHA and VA loans to 4 points. The prevailing discount nationally has been 5 1/2 to 7 1/2 points.

C. J. Medberry, executive vice president-loans, said that the bank will also increase its allocation of funds for residential housing in 197 by $100 million, which represents an increase of about 25 per cent over 1969.

Both these moves are intended to help stimulate the housing market which has lost momentum during the recent period of very tight money.

The bank, which is California's largest real estate lender, still has a continuing high demand for all types of loans but anticipates new inflows of funds during the year as money market interest rates ease further.
